PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALLER

BIOGRAPHY

Chloe Logarzo commenced her professional football career with Sydney FC in 2011- 2012 season of the W-League and continued with the club in 2012-13 before moving overseas.

While at Sydney FC in 2013 she captained the Australian U-20's national team. She then made her first debut for the Matildas in 2013. She joined US W-League's Colorado Pride in 2014 and went on to be awarded 2014 USL W-League Rookie of the Year. From 2015 until 2017 Chloe went on to play for the Newcastle Jets, Swedish team Eskilstuna United and Norwegian Toppserien side Avaldsnes.

It was during this time, Chloe suffered from injury and decided to broaden her skillset to landscaping. While recovering Chloe built a determination to come back stronger, faster and fitter. She wanted to come back in her best condition to the sport she has loved from the age 5 and to become a role model for young girls.

In 2016 Chloe returned to the Matildas and has represented Australia in the 2016 Summer Olympics, 2018 AFC Asian Cup, 2019 FIFA Women's World Cup as well 2020 Women's Olympic Qualifiers. 2017 saw Chloe return to Sydney FC where she remained until signing with Bristol City in 2020.

In February 2021 Chloe embarked on another new adventure joining Kansas City for their inaugural season as a part of the National Women's Soccer League in the USA. Chloe recently played an integral part in the Tokyo 2020 Olympic campaign for the Matildas, notching up 50 games in the green and gold for Australia.

For the 2022/2023 A-League Women's season Chloe will join the inaugural squad for Melbourne-based team, Western United, on loan from Kansas City. She has also been enjoying her guest panelist spot with the Network 10 Sports team, proving to be as natural in front of the camera as on the pitch.

Chloe is also a proud ambassador of Sydney WorldPride 2023, the first WorldPride to be held in the southern hemisphere.
