

ELISE KELLOND-KNIGHT

PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALLER

BIOGRAPHY

Elise Kellond- Knight has represented the Australian Women's Football Team in three FIFA World Cups, 2 Olympics and has worn the Green and Gold for Australia over 100 times.

She has extensive global club experience. In the Australian domestic league, she played for Brisbane Roar and Melbourne City. Internationally Elise has played in the USA NSL, German Frauen-Bundesliga & Sweden's Skånes Fotbollförbund.

Currently, Elise is signed to Hammarby in Stockholm competing in Sweden's first-tier competition, Damallsvenskan.

Not only has Elise contributed enormously to football on the pitch but also off the pitch. She is on Football Australia's Women's Football Council and is also an Executive Committee Member at the Player Football Association (PFA) and FIFPro Global Player's Council.

Growing up on the Gold Coast and enjoying the beauty around her, she has a strong belief in sustainability and contributing to the preservation of the environment. When she does have downtime, she loves nothing more than being in the ocean, hiking, photography, or enjoying time with her family.

Elise is currently studying for her Masters of Business and has also completed a bachelor's degree in Pharmaceutical Science at Griffith University.
