

KATRINA GORRY

PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALLER

BIOGRAPHY

Katrina Gorry made her debut in both the Australian National Team and the W-League club Brisbane Roar in 2012. She continued to play for Brisbane Roar during 2013 and made the leap overseas in 2014.

In 2014 she signed to US National Women's Soccer League's FC Kansas City. She was awarded 2014 AFC Women's Player of the Year and FFA Women's Player of the Year.

She has represented Australia in the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup, 2016 Summer Olympics, 2018 AFC Women's Asian Cup, 2019 FIFA Women's World Cup as well 2020 Women's Olympic Qualifiers.

From 2017 until the present Katrina plays for Brisbane Roar in the W-League. During the W-League off-season, she played for Japanese League's Vegalta Sendai and US National Women's Soccer League's Utah Royals FC.

Katrina signed with Norwegian Toppserien's Avaldsnes for the 2020 season, before returning home to play with Brisbane Roar, expertly juggling playing football and motherhood after the birth of her daughter Harper in August 2021. Later this year Katrina and Harper will be off to Sweden, having just signed a contract with Vittsjö GIK Hässleholm.

She has a great interest to join the police force and is looking at ways to study while also playing football. Off the pitch, Katrina loves spending time with her family and cavoodle Rio!
